DEBUT NOVELS

What Happened to Ruthy Ramirez* by Claire Jimenez

When 13 year old Ruthy disappeared after track practice, it left her family in shambles. Twelve years later, her sister spots a woman on TV with red-dyed hair named Ruby, and the beauty mark under her left eye is instantly recognizable. Could it be Ruthy, after all this time?

The Golden Spoon* by Jessa Maxwell

Six contestants. A big white tent on the grounds of an aging estate. It's a bake-off...in Vermont? And the winner might just be the one who survives. Sweet and savory turns deadly sour in this fast-paced, entertaining novel.

He Said He Would Be Late* by Justine Sullivan

A fast-paced, twisty psychological debut about the complexities of marriage and new motherhood, told through the frenetic lens of a wife seeking the truth about her husband, at all costs, as the validity of the life she once knew unravels page by page.

COMING SOON

Pineapple Street* by Jenny Jackson

Sasha has married into a rich family, but is trying to navigate her new life. Each family member's first-person narration offers a glimpse into their unique perspectives, allowing the reader to examine the same situation through many eyes. This family's story is both endearing and exasperating.
COMING 3/7/23

Our Best Intentions* by Vibhuti Jain

Angie is walking home after school when she finds Henry stabbed and bleeding on the football field. The police immediately focus their investigation on Chiara, a runaway Black girl who disappears after the stabbing and--is later discovered--wasn't properly enrolled in the high school.
COMING 3/14/23

Beyond That, The Sea* by Laura Spence-Ash

Domestic worlds collide when an 11-year-old evacuated from England to the US during WWII is absorbed into a new family. A multi-perspective approach to one wartime decision that impacts multiple lives across time and place--from the 1940s to the 1970s in London, Boston, and on an island off the coast of Maine.
COMING 3/21/23

The Great Reclamation* by Rachel Heng

A fearful, tender, unexpectedly gifted boy named Ah Boon in Singapore finds that his fate is inextricably wound with that of his community. Ah Boon goes out fishing with his Pa and somehow intuits the location of a mysterious island where the fish run denser than their nets can carry.
COMING 3/28/23

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT...

Deception by Gaslight* by Kate Belli

Genevieve works as a reporter. A thief, "Robin Hood", is robbing the rich and sending letters to the press highlighting their sins. Hot on his trail, Genevieve is saved from a dangerous encounter in an alley. Spotting her rescuer at a ball a few days later, she learns it was Daniel, whose past is shrouded in mystery.

Little Pieces of Me* by Alison Hammer

When Paige gets an email from a DNA testing website announcing that her father is a man she never met, she is convinced there must be a mistake. But as she digs deeper into her mother's past and her own feelings of being the odd child out growing up, Paige begins to question everything she thought she knew.

We Are The Brennans* by Tracey Lange

Shame and miscommunication drive wedges between loving siblings at turning points in their lives. The Irish American family runs a successful pub bearing their name in a small New York town. They're close-knit, but most of them keep shameful secrets from each other.
