DEBUT NOVELS

The Housekeepers by Alex Hay

Mrs. King, an extraordinary housekeeper with a background of deceit and theft, recruits a diverse group of women to seek revenge after her dismissal. Their audacious plan involves robbing the grand home during a glamorous costume ball, all while uncovering dark secrets and pursuing the ultimate truth.

At the End of Every Day by Arianna Reiche

A loyal employee of an iconic California theme park questions the death of a popular and beloved Hollywood starlet on the park grounds while two other people with ties to the enterprise discuss why employees have been disappearing.

The Carnivale of Curiosities by Aimee Gibbs

In Victorian London, Ashe and Pretorius' Carnivale of Curiosities captivates the elite, but behind the curtain, rumors swirl of its magical proprietor. When a dangerous proposition arises, the troupe's fate and dark secrets intertwine, testing the meaning of family in a perilous spectacle of high stakes.

COMING SOON

The Beast You Are by Paul Tremblay

Tremblay returns with another horror story collection, this time gathering 15 tales- some from award-winning anthologies and gems previously only available in smaller outlets-all of which will be enjoyed by long-time fans and new readers alike.

COMING 7/11/23

Nothing Special by Nicole Flattery

In 1960s New York, aimless and dissatisfied Mae finds purpose as a typist in Andy Warhol's Factory, but when her role ends, she grapples with her identity and the blurred boundaries between art and voyeurism in an exploration of self-discovery.

COMING 7/11/23

Cutting Teeth by Chandler Baker

Darby, Mary Beth, and Rhea strive to regain their lost identities as mothers, but their plans are derailed when an unsettling medical condition arises at their children's preschool: the kids develop a craving for blood.

COMING 7/18/23

Kala by Colin Walsh

Three friends reunite in Kinlough after the disappearance of their friend Kala, but the discovery of remains leads to more disappearances, forcing them to confront their complicity and break the cycle of violence in their town.

COMING 7/25/23

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT...

The Whispers by Heidi Perks

During Girls' Night, Anna goes missing, leaving her loved ones desperate for answers. Grace, her childhood friend, determinedly investigates the truth behind Anna's disappearance, risking everything to uncover the mystery.

The Book Woman's Daughter by Kim Richardson

In the Kentucky mountains, Honey takes on her mother's packhorse library route to prove her independence, fighting against the challenges of the treacherous journey and the resistance of those who doubt a woman's abilities.

Self-Portrait With Ghost by Meng Jin

Jin (Little Gods) returns with a provocative magical realist collection of 10 stories in which women fall in love, grieve, and figure out what to make of their lives amid constant changes. Many of these engrossing entries take inspiration from contemporary events such as the Covid-19 pandemic and the Trump presidency.
